Celebrating
25
Years!

Maui Arts & Cultural Center

2019 / 2020 CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Celebrating with 25+ events in 2019. . .

Aloha!

Welcome to “The MACC presents” — our 2019–20 performing arts season. This edition of the catalog will take you through the highlights of our summer/fall/early winter 2019 collection of performing and visual arts presentations at Maui Arts & Cultural Center. Look for an updated edition as we flip the calendar pages to 2020.

In this, our 25th anniversary year, we have many exciting new experiences for you, and we’re bringing back a great selection of ever-enjoyable classic acts. Throughout the Fall of 2019, we will bring you 25+ new favorites and 25+ hana hou favorites — and more to come in 2020!

With a full spectrum of performances, exhibitions, festivals, family events, student field trips, and workshops, the MACC continues to bring the best of the world to Maui, and to celebrate the best of the islands.

Mahalo for supporting MACC programs and presentations with your ticket purchases, and by attending our many free events. We look forward to having you join us over the coming months to create memorable MACC moments — looking forward to the next 25 years!

Hula Ma'i

THU, SEPTEMBER 12
7:30 PM | McCOY STUDIO THEATER

Traditional procreation chants and dances celebrate and encourage the continuation of ali'i family lines, but these Hula Ma'i can be misunderstood in modern context. This presentation will look at several chants as poetical expressions, including their hula form. Facilitated by Kumu Hula Hōkūlani Holt; hula by Pā'ū O Hi'iaka, Hālau Kamaluokaleihulu, Hālau Nā Lei Kaumaka O Uka, and Hālau O Ka Hanu Lehua. Parental discretion advised.

Tickets: $25

Kū Mai Ka Hula

.....

SAT, SEPTEMBER 14
1:00 PM | CASTLE THEATER

The MACC and Kauahea Inc. present hālau from Hawai'i, the U.S. continent, and Japan, with both kāne and wahine adults competing solo and in groups, performing kahiko (traditional) and 'auana (modern) hula stylings. Outside the theater, attendees can browse an array of Hawai'i products by crafters and artisans.

Tickets: $25 ½ kids 12/under

14th Annual Maui 'Ukulele Festival

SUN, SEPTEMBER 29
A&B AMPHITHEATER, 1-6 PM | GATES 12:30 PM

Enjoy a relaxed afternoon on the lawn as acclaimed 'ukulele musicians fill the air with island music! Fine 'ukulele will be featured as door prizes, and attendees can browse the displays of made-in-Hawai'i arts and crafts. It's a beautiful day for the whole family—visitors and residents alike. Line-up includes: The Hula Honeys, Derick Sebastian, Kamakakehau Fernandez, Kanekoa, Ahumanu, Anthony Fluke, Andrew & Jay Molina, Arlie-Avery Asiu, Kalama Intermediate Band, Seabury Hall Hawaiian Ensemble, Nick Acosta— and more! And it's FREE!

Richard Thompson Electric Trio

SUN, OCTOBER 6
7:30 PM | CASTLE THEATER

Powered by evocative song craft, jaw-dropping guitar playing, and indefinable spirit, this venerable icon is on Rolling Stone's list of "100 Greatest Guitarists of All Time." Among his many accolades (including the honor of an OBE bestowed upon him by Queen Elizabeth) are Lifetime Achievement Awards from the BBC and the Americana Music Association. Richard Thompson recently released his nineteenth solo album 13 Rivers.

Tickets: $40, $55, $65

2019

Christian Sands Trio

THU, OCTOBER 10
7:30 PM | CASTLE THEATER

Christian Sands is currently one of the most in-demand pianists working in jazz, and he has toured the world as a bandleader. Sands has an affable understanding of the audience; he recognizes the innate desire to be entertained as well as enlightened, so he may include other genres. "Pop music is essential in jazz. It's new melodies, new stories, or the same stories told in different ways. Jazz is about storytelling, and pop music has a unique story to tell."

Tickets: $40, $50 ½ kids 12/under

2019

MAMo at the MACC: Wearable Art Show

SAT, OCTOBER 12
7:30 PM | YOKOUCHI PAVILION;
TRUNK SHOW PREVIEW, 6:00 PM

A component of the Maoli Arts Movement, this “wearable art” show celebrates Hawaiian design and cultural motifs in fabric and clothing, in a way that makes it more than just a runway fashion show. This is truly an evening not to be missed! Co-presented with PA’I Foundation

Tickets: $35, $45; premium $65 includes Trunk Show

Kris Kristofferson & The Strangers

SAT, OCTOBER 19
7:30 PM | CASTLE THEATER

Kris Kristofferson has many credits: as a writer of hit songs like “Me and Bobby McGee,” “For the Good Times,” “Sunday Mornin’ Comin’ Down,” and “Help Me Make It Through the Night,” “Lovin’ Her Was Easier (Than Anything I’ll Ever Do Again),” and “Why Me;” as a recording artist on his own and as part of The Highwaymen with Waylon Jennings, Willie Nelson, and Johnny Cash; and as an actor starring in many films—including the 1976 version of A Star Is Born!

This is a benefit concert for Na Keiki O Emalia & Maui Arts & Cultural Center.

Tickets: $15, $35, $55, $85, $125; VIP $500

Trio con Brio Copenhagen

SUN, OCTOBER 20
3:00 PM | CASTLE THEATER

“Glowing reports hold true. Trio con Brio Copenhagen clearly occupies a lofty perch in today’s musical scene.” (The Washington Post)
“Sensational playing from Korean sisters Soo-Jin Hong and Soo-Kyung Hong and Danish piano wizard Jens Elvekjaer.” (Classic FM) “From the first note, Trio con Brio exudes class. . . compelling panache.” (Strad UK) “Any group would be hard-pressed to imitate this blend of verve and poise.” (Gramophone Magazine)
Tickets: $40, $50
½ kids 12/ under

2019

Okaidja Afroso

FRI, OCTOBER 25
7:30 PM | CASTLE THEATER
WITH DANCE FLOOR

Born into a family of musicians and storytellers in a village on the west coast of Ghana, Okaidja’s music pursues global harmony. “My music preserves my West African roots while embracing diverse cross-cultural influences and styles. I strive to create a rhythmic fusion of old and new that presents a fresh sound that preserves the authenticity of the traditional while embracing the rich complexity of the integrated world we inhabit today.”

Tickets: $35, $45 ½ kids 12/under

African Dance Workshop:
Thursday, Oct 24 $10

Rosy Simas Danse: “Weave”

THU, NOVEMBER 14
7:30 PM | CASTLE THEATER

Native American choreographer Rosy Simas (Seneca Nation) breathes life into “Weave,” a dance project drawn from the interwoven and interdependent nature of our world. As the title suggests, “Weave” traces the vibrant threads of individual and embodied stories, uniting in an interdisciplinary performance woven of story, dance, moving image, and quadrasonic sound. “Weave’... washed over the audience like a wave. It was a tactile piece, summoning the senses.” (Star Tribune -Minneapolis)

Tickets: $20, $35, $45 ½ kids 12/under

Dance Workshop: Wednesday, Nov 13 $10

“Hae Hawai‘i”: Film & Panel Discussion

SUN, NOVEMBER 17
3:00 PM | MCCOY STUDIO THEATER

In an historical drama set during the overthrow of the Hawaiian monarchy and days leading up to annexation, a young thief is recruited to protect the unifying symbol of the kingdom: the Hawaiian flag. A post-film panel with film director Ty Sanga will discuss the significance of Hae Hawai‘i: what it meant during the time of the overthrow, and what it means today.

Tickets: $12 ½ kids 12/under

Hawai'i International Film Festival

Tickets: $12 (HIFF members $10)

Australia's Strange Fruit: "The Spheres"

SAT, NOVEMBER 23

6:15 & 8:15 PM | A & B AMPHITHEATER

A performing arts company based in Melbourne, Australia, Strange Fruit produces a remarkable style of work that fuses theatre, dance, and circus. Perched atop five-meter-high flexible poles, the troupe delivers a sublime performance, bending and swaying in a hypnotizing dance as the audience looks up in wonder. The program for this evening, "The Spheres," takes a whimsical look at physics, the miracle of birth, and humanity's existential relationship to our planet. 'Celestial beings' emerge from illuminated globes to recount a tale of transformation and wonder—covering creation, exultation, liberation, life, the universe, and everything!

Australia's Strange Fruit as produced by Strut & Fret Production House.

Old Dominion

FRI, JANUARY 3

6:45 PM

A&B AMPHITHEATER

With special guest: Morgan Evans. Old Dominion has emerged as one of the hottest bands in country music, fusing clever lyrics and an infectious sound. Proving they are not your average country band, Old Dominion blends old-fashioned country charm, lyrical wit, and rock n' roll grit into radio-friendly, hook-heavy pop nuggets like "Make It Sweet," "No Such Thing as a Broken Heart," "Written in the Sand," and "Hotel Key" — all of which hit #1 on the charts.

Tickets: $45, $55, $65, $85, $125

Camerata RCO

THU, JANUARY 16

7:30 PM | CASTLE THEATER

"Thrilling amalgam of simplicity and expression." (NRC Handelsblad) Camerata RCO is a unique ensemble comprised of members of Amsterdam's renowned Royal Concertgebouw Orchestra. "We enjoy playing in the orchestra tremendously. However, we like to expand this joy by playing together in a small ensemble as well. . . we like to be in close contact with our audience. The energy that results from these concerts is what inspires us most."

Tickets: $45, $65 ½ kids 12/under

Aspen Santa Fe Ballet

THU, JANUARY 23
7:30 PM | CASTLE THEATER

The bold vision of top choreographic talent matched with virtuosic dancers has made ASFB a jewel of a dance company, epitomizing the contemporary classical genre. Their repertoire embodies a European sensibility glossed with American ebullience.

Tickets: $35, $50, $65 ½ kids 12/under

Dance Workshop: Wednesday, Jan 22 $10

Kūpaoa & Mark Yamanaka

FRI, JANUARY 31
7:30 PM
McCOY STUDIO THEATER

14-time Nā Hōkū Hanohano Award-winner Mark Yamanaka's first two albums won coveted awards, and his latest release, Lei Lehua, won five 2019 Nā Hōkū awards! Mark and Kūpaoa together released A Gift of the Heart in 2015. Now they join forces again to bring a beautiful evening of original Hawaiian mele plus many traditional classics, done in a style unique to their sound.
